Here you will find the menu of Mykonos Mediterranean Grill in Toronto. At the moment, there are 49 meals and drinks on the menu. Mykonos, a long-standing Greek restaurant on Yonge Street, has received mixed reviews from diners. Some have expressed disappointment with the small portions and lackluster flavors of dishes like the lamb shank and moussaka. The atmosphere is described as cramped and uncomfortable by some patrons. However, others have praised the restaurant for its traditional Greek dishes like Greek salad, grilled calamari, and pork loin, which were delicious and generously portioned. The service has been described as friendly and accommodating by many, making it a great spot for families. Overall, Mykonos offers a decent option for Greek food outside of the traditional Greektown area, with some standout dishes and welcoming service.
