Went for lunch with a friend, $11 for a gigantic plate of vegan dal, huge samosa, (gluten free option available) rice, fresh salad and a papadum. Dal was fragrant, kind of sweet but in an authentically Indian way, Salad was simple and very fresh, samosa was a little doughy for my taste but still really good, papadum was perfect and crunchy. Didn't try anything else but if that food was anything to go by I would defin... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Peace Garden: Terrible food, terrible service, terrible place. Only 1 person working when I was trying to order and he looked startled to have a customer, then after he saw me, he ignored me until FINALLY someone else came and took my order. It took over 15 minutes for a small, sub-par, very basic salad. And it was $15 CAN. What a waste. The staff acted annoyed that I asked for cutlery and napkins since it was take out. Don't wast... read more.
