The subs here are not your average franchise variety. The cheese is real mozzarella sliced in store. Buns are fresh made and the meat is deli sliced on site. If you want a great Submarine sandwich - this is the place to visit read more. What User doesn't like about Master Submarine:

The prices are a little high for what you get. I have a rib. Two tiny rib pieces with what tasted like yellow label bbq sauce. I like Rib Subs, but I didn't like it. My wife had an equally inspiring, over expensive turkey sub. By...compared, my local sub-shop brings this to shame in value and quality. The service here was good, although friendly staff. Just need a better product. read more.
