This was a great meal after many hours on the road. The food is authentic Indian, the prices are fair, and the place was full. Butter chicken, Aloo Gobi, and Naan bread were fantastic. Many vegetarian options read more.

My friend's and I love Indian food, but this place which is the only option in town has very expensive food. The food itself is ok. Mild flavour with a bit of spice, but I just didn't think it was worth the extra money for mostly bland food. It was twice as expensive as the place I go to in Toronto and not even close to being as good. I wasn't all that pleased with it, but it wasn't bad. it just wasn't great either. read more.
