This is a great little restaurant with a pretty good menu offering all types of East Indian food. There is very limited seating so most times we take out. The food is always hot and ready to go when we arrive. The prices are a little above average but worth it if you like this kind of food. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Indra's Curry House:

I was quite disappointed with eating. we had Indian food from all over Canada and that just fell short. it lacked taste and did not have this authenticity that comes in the regular with Indian cuisine. the pakoras were incredibly doughy and did not come with a...tamarind sauce that was disappointed. it wasn't the worst thing I had, but it was far from the best. it was also the most expensive Indian food we have ever...
