The outside look of the restaurant is not promising. It is not at street level. Then you realise that it is full of people and you decide to 'give it a try' and get inside. You go in and you receive a very warm welcome. We went on a Monday night, we didn't reserve and we could not eat in. We decided to take away the food to the hotel. Next time in Vancouver, we will definitely eat in. The BBQ is in the table and the... read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available for free. What AirSchis doesn't like about Gyu-Kaku Japanese BBQ:

Located near Oak Street on the south side of West Broadway second floor. Good luck with street parking. If you find a meter and it is south of Broadway it will be super expensive. This place offers Korean and Japanese cuisine and you can barbecue the meat at your table. In addition, you can order bowls of food when you don't want to do your own cooking. Staff are friendly and helpful. The food is not cheap so be prep... read more. With typical Asian spices scrumptious traditional dishes are prepared in the kitchen of Gyu-Kaku Japanese BBQ in Vancouver, and you may look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine. If you'd like something dessert to finish off, Gyu-Kaku Japanese BBQ does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame.
