Food is good with a suprisingly good size menu. Small towns usually see Chinese Restraunts, which this is not. (although there is one in town) The mom and pop owners are respected in the community and even ran the concession at the local arena for a few years. You can get decent burgers and fries, but also a good steak sandwich or veal cutlets so... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Outback Country Kitchen:

We love the food. Homemade pommies are the best! Usually we get takeout, but decided to eat. The decor is cozy and makes you feel like you in the grandmother's house. Overall, the place is quite clean, but I noticed that the salt shakers and spices on the table could really use a good cleaning. Service: Dine in read more.
