We enjoyed a lovely dinner in this restaurant. It's a small place so a reservation is a good idea... Excellent oysters, octopus and halibut special. The menu is creative and well executed. The wine list had a heavy French emphasis -- with many options that were good quality and very reasonably priced. A good spot for a nice night out in Old Montreal... this place has a good vibe. We went to this place meeting with friends from the back days. It looked ok, but once there we all where a bit disappointed. First the music was loud. Yo go to a resto to eat and talk with each other at else we go to a dancing. They guy who served us was friendly, but over all the atmosphere was so so. Then the food. It was ok but a bit expensive for what you get. There are better options around. read more. If you're looking for more excitement than just eating and drinking, you'll find it in this sports bar. Enjoy large and small snacks and menus and watch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, Additionally, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are available. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The visitors of the establishment also consider the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
