Best sushi place in town, best restaurant in town. Hands down. It's newer on the scene, and people don't always like to try new things, but Chef Dai knocks it out of the park. Delicious fresh fish, carefully hand prepared, and all of it can be eaten with a free conscience! You can tell that everything is made with the utmost care and attention to detail. The attention put into each dish reflects the respect that Chef... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Fukasaku:

I've given Fukasaku a try three times now. Each time hoping it would finally impress me. Mediocre service each time (not very friendly) and the sushi wasn't anything to rave about. Recently thought I would give the Ramen a try, but still wasn't impressed. Flavours...were underwhelming and I've honestly had better store bought and homemade ramen. I really wanted to give this place another shot, but I think I'll bring... read more. Are you looking for sweet treats? In Fukasaku you will find delicious desserts that will certainly quench your cravings, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals cooked. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Fukasaku. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, fine particularly are the Sushi and specialties like Inside-Out that this place is known for.
