Based on their super slow service I really wanted to give them an average rating. But their food was so good, I just couldn't do it. I was there twice, once we ate at the restaurant, and the food was great, the service was not bad. But when we came back to order take-out for a fishing trip, the service was horribly slow and they messed up our order. So my advice is if you want to eat there, because the food is good, o... The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Kiwi Café:

Here's how the restaurant could up its game. Use a little less mayo on the sandwiches - it simply overflows. Maybe offer a refill on the coffee. Add a few veggies to the salad that accompanies the sandwiches/paninis. Just lettuce and nothing else is a paltry side salad. Overpriced for what you get. read more.
