This place has a very modest exterior. In fact it's hard to tell if they're open sometimes, but the attention to detail in their recipes and execution make it worth seeking out. It's a favourite lunch spot of mine. Ty has a creative sensibility in creating homemade soups, salads and flatbreads. There are also scones and other baked products from time to time. The value is good too considering the quality ingredients.... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, and there is free WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Ty's Fine Foods & Bistro:

We went for lunch last month and had a nice lunch there of soup with flatbread. The flatbreads were tasty and well made. The soup came barely warm, so we sent it back to be heated up. My chicken soup was too peppery. The staff was very nice and it was pleasant and clean and welcoming. The flatbreads are great. The price for all three lunches totaled only $18.... a bargain.
