I travel a lot and therefore eat out often and as some one who has to watch what he eats, I find salads are safe bets in most places. Last week my wife and I stayed in a hotel near The Ruby and although it was near closing we hoped to stop in for a salad. I had the best Chicken Caesar Salad I have had in years. The dressing was very subtle and the chicken was fantastic! Fresh rotisserie chicken white meat was so tende... read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Ruby:

This place hits all the retro-signals except the pricing. I went in with a friend thinking this might be a place for an ordinary bacon&eggs experience without the Denny's (just a block away!) corporate feel. We had no wait time (a plus), even at 9 a.m. The colourful hotel on site (Motel Zed) suggested a funky vibe. There's plenty of parking, interior is like the old Laugh-In set. The tables are well spaced and the mu... read more. In case you're craving some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delightful menus, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Also, the visitors of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. Moreover, there are delicious American dishes, such as burgers and grilled meat, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages.
