Try to grab a seat in the window or in front on the street for some of the best people watching in the city. Great location and amazing tapas. Great Spanish wine selection. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Espana:

The food is absolutely bad. There is any similarity with spanish cuisine. It is very spicy and the taste is confuse!. The price is expensive and the plates are small. The spanish wines are bad ones. People coming from arround the world love spanish food as it is made in Spain. People working in the restaurant have never eaten spanish food in Spain and do not know tapas at all.I feel very disapointed for people using... read more. Espana from Vancouver is a restaurant that offers savory typical Spanish meals, Moreover, there are good to digest Mediterranean courses on the menu. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate.
