We have been here twice, and have left with a happy full tummy on both occasions. Their dinner buffet has plenty to choose from; and they do a fine job of the Butter Chicken. Hubby can't get enough of those little dessert balls drenched in (honey?!). Service has been good both times, pleasant and attentive. Since we live in the area it is now where we go for our Indian food fix. read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Jas Indian Cuisine:

This was my first experience of Indian cuisine in Canada, I am British. We decided to stop here after travelling and we were starving. We were excited to see it was a buffet. However, the staff had very limited English and ordering was a challenge. I had to ask several times for our drinks and the waitress just looked puzzled. The buffet...well the rice was served out of a tiny rice maker and it was crunchy and over... read more.
