What User likes about Brûlerie du Quai: the place is charming, the exceptional location and the excellent coffee. a very relaxing little terrace where it is possible to sip gently an excellent coffee. some patisseries and other sweets are also available. read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Brûlerie du Quai: Well, the place is beautiful, right along the port, but there is garbage, dirty papers and broken chairs on the terrace outside. The girl at the service counter is bored and not listening (I do speak French so it's not a problem of language) and gave us not what we have asked. I'm giving two stars because the coffee was at least ok. Not recommended at all. read more. It's certainly always an event to be in a typical saloon and to eat; to feel like a cowboy for once with a chilled drink and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, Likewise, the customers of the restaurant prefer the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide diversity of beers from the region and the whole world.
