What User likes about Comptoir 21: A restaurant to revisit each time in Montréal for arguably the best tasting fish and chips. The 2 piece meal is tasty and filling, although the clam chowder soup could have been served hotter. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Comptoir 21: We were told that we were not allowed to just order a drink, even though our friends were already eating. I then had to have my friend pay for my drink, as I couldn't pay for it without buying food. The waiter refused to speak english to my partner and I after this, and ignored any requests we had, unless our friend translated for us. read more. A selection of flavorful seafood meals is provided by the Comptoir 21 from Montréal, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the extensive selection of traditional dishes and indulge in the taste of England. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, It's worth mentioning that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the establishment.
