Really enjoyed the tapas style eating here. We had a selection - the kale with black sesame was sensational - anyone who can make kale taste that good is a cooking God/Goddess! Spicy fried chicken had a good sriracha style kick and the fried brie is wonderful and gooey. Salmon sushi delicious although a little on the expensive side considering what you are getting. Still all in all thumbs up to this place - just wish... read more. Enjoy a bit of this and a bit of everything at the joint, known for its well-known Tapas, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals cooked. But the undisputed highlight of this place is the tasty Sushi such as Maki and Te-Maki.
