We had breakfast buffet on the corporate level. The many positives: There was a large tasty selection and the staff was very friendly, attentive and accommodating. Our lovely server, Traci, sat us at a table overlooking the hotel's beautiful garden. One Negative: The high back "70s" chairs dated the space :(read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers, and into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about LIV Restaurant:

You are paying for the experience not the food. The dining room is gorgeous and they do a great job with the amuse-bouche and Palate cleanser (both delicious). The appetizer was great but TINY and for the price they are charging it is a little...out there. The entrée was average at best, the beef tenderloin was just a big piece of unseasoned beef, served with a week reduction, two tiny asparagus and a couple pepper t... read more. Are you looking for pudding? In LIV Restaurant you will find delicious desserts that will certainly quench your cravings, it's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
