One of the best roast beef dinners I have been served. Charming, small restaurant with excellent service and friendly knowledgeable staff. The chef will alter your selection to your preference and the cost reasonable for the very large portion served. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What

User doesn't like about Whistle Stop:

We were there for dinner and I noticed that the Prime Rib special was more expensive than the Prime Rib on the menu. When I asked our server she said she would check on it and get back to me. I couldn't believe her answer....It would be at the more expensive price because they were waiting for new menus to be printed. They would not honour the lower price printed in the menu... needless to say we all ordered something... read more.
