This is a busy but efficient little spot on the main road between Lark Harbour and Little Port. Our fish and chips (with dressing and gravy, I might add...just like in town!) arrived piping hot and the fish was as fresh as you could get...so mild, sweet and flaky, and cooked to perfection in a thin, crispy batter. We had wanted to sit on the back deck to enjoy the view after a quick hike to Blow Me Down Brook (fin... read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside.
