Enjoyed our dinner here. Of course the fish is fresh not frozen and that adds to the taste. Restaurant is small but we reserved ahead and we able to get a table for nine The servers are very very friendly read more. What User doesn't like about Batter The Devil You Know:

This restaurant recently closed. This was new restaurant which opened three years ago and set their prices too high for this area. The prices were very high and people in our community could purchase the food at a much better rate close to the same establishment. They did not have ample space for the customers who would eat there. read more. Various delicious seafood meals are offered by the Batter The Devil You Know from NEW WATERFORD. It shows that the traditional Canadian meals are well received by the customers of the local.
