The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Amanda B doesn't like about Premier BBQ House: We ordered 2 full meals from this place, was charged $30. We opened our containers and there was about 3 pieces of lettuce with a half a slice of tomato posing as our side. I was supposed to get a ceasar salad, not received. The other container contained about half a cup of rice. I called and asked what happened. The man who answered could care less, says if you go anywhere else, your charged the same price, didnt c...
