Tasty food, but make sure you have cash. The first night we didn't have enough and it was late, but they had no problem letting us take the food. We paid the next day, and ate there each day of our trip. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Hut:

Not much competition in Bay St. Lawrence, but $20 for a lobster roll (no sides included) is a lot. Crab roll was $18. Seafood fillings were very good & plentiful, but the rolls were a bit stale (for the price, I expect fresher bread). The chocolate milkshake was very good. read more. The Hut is famous for its diverse Canadian meals, made from typical country products, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. The burgers of this place are among the highlights and are usually served with filling sides such as chips, salads or wedges.
