Our previous visits to this delightful charcuterie, bakery and restaurant were based on the wonderful chocolate chip cookies we discovered there many years ago. They have been a family favourite and have always motivated our family members to make the stop. Our most recent visit was to have our breakfast there and we were not disappointed. The friendly and warm service, the many tempting choices and the delicious foo... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi.
