We have a tradition of local birthday lunches for one of my older friends. She is a bit unsteady on her feet so easy access is a consideration. The Kettle Valley Golf Club is a great venue in that respect and in other important ones as well. The staff is friendly and accommodating and the food is very good. Clean and tasty. Lots of windows looking out onto the course make it bright and attractive. Highly recommended. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink.
