What User likes about Cafe Campagne: a warm welcome, a high-quality food, well-filled plates, an owner and attentive staff...the Breton crêpes and the Benedictine eggs are exquisite...a single flat...we should find a way to let the customers know who are intruding (not over for more than 45 minutes...and I don't exaggerate)! that it is time to give way to the people who are waiting (especially the weekend). read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Cafe Campagne: when they are ignored and complain the server, they clean the table from the customer in front of them and bring these dishes into the kitchen themselves, eat them here. I really wanted to love this place and maybe make a regular place, not after. eating was delicious, the customer service was not existent. read more.
