We waited 1/2 hour, even with the reservation, but it was worth it. We spent the time walking around a bit, taking some pictures, then going into the "lounge" where there are many comfy chairs, games, books, coffee, tea and delicious shortbread cookies. The area is gorgeous, and our table next to the window had a beautiful view. It's a set menu with 3 courses for about $75, and well worth it. We had delicious soup, t... read more.
