The restaurant has a very diverse menu, and the food is excellent! I have lots of food allergies, and Richard worked with me to find dishes that not only worked with my allergies, but were very tasty. The owners are extremely nice. I would stay there again. After the disappointing assortment of places in Carcross, we decided to check out the restaurant at the Spirit Lake Resort. Extensive menu including Chinese selections, we chose a sandwich and a surprisingly good vegetable omelette. Also had ice cream for dessert. It wasn't the Ritz but the food was tasty and nutritious and hit the spot. Not a destination restaurant, but a good place to stop in the wide open Yukon. read more.
