What User likes about Les Labours:

Usually hotels don't have a gourmet restaurant, but this is one of the exceptions. The decor is modern and the restaurant has an open kitchen right in the middle of the dining area. It is located on the second floor, and has lots of windows with great views. The menu is not too extensive, but everything is prepared with a gourmet touch. They also have a nice wine selection available with a knowledgeable sommelier. We... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available for free. What User doesn't like about Les

Labours:

We ate at Les Labours last night. The food was very good but the service was not on par for a restaurant like that. Our dirty aperitif glasses sat at the edge of the table the whole time. It took 40 minutes from the end of our mains until dessert arrived. Our server was very nice but didn't seem too familiar with either the wine or the food. It is a shame that restaurants of this caliber don't train their staff as well... read more. The Les Labours originating from Baie-Saint-Paul dishes out various tasty seafood menus, For you, the menus are normally prepared fast and fresh. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the sweet desserts of the establishment shine not only in the eyes of the little guests.
