My wife and I decided to have date night here. We had heard great things about this place since we live in the area near it. It is a truly unique treasure off the beaten path. We had a great meal. I had pork chops with vegetables and my wife had snitzel and perogies. Both our meals were outstanding. We never left hungry and were thoroughly impressed with the restaurant. The service was excellent and the food was amazin... read more.

In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about the Flying Chestnut:

We weren't told any of the drinks or specials. The wait staff's first words were are you ready to order. She was short and unhelpful. The food was better than the service, but I wouldn't rush back. read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to the Flying Chestnut even more worthwhile, there are also fine vegetarian dishes in the menu. Meals are usually prepared quickly for you and brought to the table, It's worth mentioning that the typical Canadian menus are well received by the customers of the establishment.
