Since our first time eating at the Clay Oven the week it opened, we were hooked on the amazing Indian food here. My wife and I have eaten here about twice a month on average and have never been disappointed. Food is the BEST.. we've tried Indian restaurants in many towns and none top the food here! Service is excellent, owners are friendly, food is great and prices are very good. The tannery is gone but the Clay Oven... read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about The Clay Oven:

No need to go to the big city for great Indian food. Some service staff are very inattentive and decor is not high end, but the food is very good. If your main concern is getting great Indian food you can rest assured this place will satisfy. read more. At The Clay Oven from Acton it's possible to savor delicious vegetarian courses, that were made without any animal meat or fish, One also prepares meals tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices.
