When you arrive you enter a marvellous market with fresh fruit and vegetables, a bakery, and a restaurant. Upstairs you will find wonderful items for the home from cooking to Mennonite made hardwood furniture. Take your time because this is a place for browsing! We had a wonderful lunch with homemade beef vegetable soup and sandwiches top off with carrot cheesecake that is to die for! Off the beaten path but definite... read more.

The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Windmill Country Market:

Love shopping here, so many interesting things to see and buy. Thought we would grab lunch. My husband had the fish which was burnt on the bottom side with the coating. I ordered chicken , it was very thin and there was more coating then any fish inside, really disappointing. I think this food comes out of the prepared frozen food from their freezers. Had hamburgers and fries before and they were awesome. Won't order... read more. The extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Windmill Country Market even more worthwhile, In addition, the sweet desserts of the restaurant shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. One also grills South American here with fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here.
