If you like wild meat, this is the place! Had a very generous portion of duck rolls as an appetizer, followed by main course of quail with spaghetti squash and mushroom sauce. Was glad I did not take the "Table d'hote" (which would have included dessert), because I was simply too full to eat more! But everything was well presented and soooooo delicious! The mix of tavern chairs with big wooden tables and the fireplac... read more.

They were busy with a live band in the park and only one server on. I waited a long time for a pint and the selection was weak. Ordered a rickards. The menu was easily translateable into English and my server made a real effort once she slowed down. I opted for duck tartare which for 28 bucks was very nice. A good salad. Lots of crackers. Hohum fries on the side. The tartare itself was excellent and I ended up in a n... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The sugar-sweet desserts of the local also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
