We were a group of three ladies staying in Gagetown for the weekend. (Lang House Bed and Breakfast). Our host suggested we try Creek View for supper on Friday. On entering, we were the only patrons. Creek View is a small restaurant. Don't let this fool you. The food is excellent. Two of us had the chowder and a choice of cornbread/biscuit/roll. Chowder was full of fish. It was very good. We also chose desserts. I had... read more. Enjoyed a well prepared smallish portion of Seafood Chowder, full bodied broth and plenty of seafood served with Cornbread. Started with a Cranberry Mead and I finished with Sweet Potato Fries while wife had a Stanley pudding as we discussed the drive out from Fredericton. read more.
