On a Saturday morning! You might be alone but you aren't really! Staff and locals will say hello and lots of seating - join the group table, sit outside or take the spot in the sunshine by the window! Always fresh muffins, soups, salads and sandwiches with fun taste combinations using fresh local ingredients when in season. Chai tea is made in house- no sweetener. Good - then you can enjoy a freshly baked lemon squar... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Wild Oak Cafe & Community Market:

Limited menu with some unusual twists - nice. Food was good and service was okay. Help yourself to cutlery, cream, water, etc. Had the soup and sandwich for lunch and it was good. It was extremely noisy in there because it is all open, small and music was at full throttle - had to ask to have it turned down! Great coffee and sign mentioned all day breakfast. Would go back again maybe once more but not overly impressed... read more.
