The food is great and service very good . The old owner passed away about the time you were there . That explains possibly what happened . Now new weekend cooks and new owner who is very very much involved with the business . Go back you will find a big difference bankforter. I really have enjoyed my breakfast sandwich both last two weekends . Place is clean and very well maintained outside. Ask for new owner her nam... read more. The Flat Top Grill:

This little out of the way place is very good. Service was great, food was good and the prices are excellent. We went with a large group which can be difficult but all of us got our food on time, service was quick and it was all hot. I was a bit disappointed in the corned beef breakfast....not much corned beef and there was one small error in one of the orders but nothing major. We would all go back. read more.
