I am no spring chicken and this place was there when I was growing up. They have always had a full house of cars there..lots of picnic tables - a large grass field right beside it (there are washrooms)and Tim Horton's right on the other side.A great place to stop if your kids are ratty and you're only halfway there. The field acts as an energy eater and the food makes up the rest - then off to the beach! Always good... read more.
