First impression: A simple but very nice small home style restaurant and very clean. Service: Friendly, courteous and fast. The food: Fish and chips was delicious and nice and crispy with the best coleslaw ever. The whole clams were AMAZING! Very fresh, lightly breaded and cooked perfectly...not a bit rubbery. We will definitely stop here again. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather.

What User doesn't like about Hooked N' Cooked:

We loved the name of the restaurant. There weren't a lot of choices on the menu beyond fried seafood and fried side dishes. I thought the salmon would be better right along the Miramichi River. Service was adequate. If you like fried everything, you'd probably like this place - if you're looking for seafood cooked another way, keep looking. read more.
