We were there for lunch, on the patio overlooking the Gatineau River : lovely. We had the nachos and the burger and both dishes were impeccable. Good salsa, good guacamole, good fries, good aioli. What more do you want?

Attentive and friendly service and we got that Too. It makes it a place that we want to go back to regularly because the experience is always good. read more. You can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Aracely Bins doesn't like about Le Hibou:

Our first visit was with friends from out of town and the food and service were pretty good. Five of us visited the first time and we all had Asian (inspired) food and enjoyed it (4 stars). Our second visit was on Canada Day and was a contrast to our first visit (not good). The fish (fish & chips) looked like it came from a frozen package and the chips (everyone had chips with their orders) were lukewarm and a little... read more.
