User likes about Walker's Landing:

Walker's Landing has created a home away from home for both local patrons and weary travellers. Situated on the main street of town it offers a friendly staff, a tasty place to have either a snack or a full course meal, a wide variety of draft beer plus specialty cocktails, and an atmosphere that welcomes you to 'belly up to the bar'. The location is small in size which tends to get noisy at times but that only indica... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, and there is no-charge WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Walker's Landing:

A nice, casual surrounding. The service was good and prompt. My husband had the lasagna...which was very cold in the centre and had to be reheated in the microwave. I had Pasta of the day...and it was obviously cooked early as the noodles were overcooked. It is a bit noisy, but there are choices as to where you can be seated...a patio or another room and it appeared there was an upstairs as well. read more. The Walker's Landing originating from Walkerton dishes out various delicious seafood courses, Besides the delicious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The versatile Canadian meals are a hit among the customers of the local.
