My husband , myself and our granddaughter went for lunch here today. I had never eaten here before but had bought a few pastries here for takeout. We all had soup and half sandwiches. They had 3 different soups and we each had a different one. The minestrone and the tomato basil soup were very good. My husband had the cream of mushroom and he said it was too salty. The tequilla tuna sandwich was very good, and my gran... read more.
