Staying in Lake Country last week, looking for a breakfast place close by without driving into Kelowna. The Wooden Nickel is a locally owned bright little breakfast and lunch restaurant. They have friendly staff and hearty portions. I ordered the eggs Benedict, others had bacon/sausage and eggs with homemade sourdough bread, yum! We also went back for a lunch, great sandwiches as well. It is wheelchair accessible and... read more.

We went to the Wooden Nickle for breakfast. They weren't full but service was quite slow. We had to ask for coffee and water refills every time we wanted as the waitresses didn't notice. They have fantastic home made sour dough bread but it was soaked with butter. Had a ham and cheese omelette and it was quite good. Would return if there weren't other options. read more.
