We were returning from Fogo on the last ferry which means we wouldn't be back in Twillingate until a little after 9 pm. We were a party of 12 so we called to see if they could accommodate us. They told us they would stay open until we arrived. They were waiting for us when we arrived and offered to feed us with a variety of food for a fixed price per person. They explained some of the food they had which sounded good... read more.
