The three of us met for lunch but all of us ordered the same meal. Fish and Chips. It was a good meal with really good service. The manager thanked us for our cooperation during some rainy weather on the patio and offered us three free drinks. We declined the drinks but the gesture was kindly received and appreciated. We will go back and try some other menu items. read more. The setting for this pub is lovely but we were so disappointed by the actual appearance and smell of the place! The washrooms smell strongly of urine. This smell wafts right out into the dining room. You can tell they have not been cleaned in a long time. The building has such potential that it's really sad to see it so unkempt and neglected. Having said that, the beer and nachos were good and reasonably priced. Serv... read more.
