My kids and I stopped in the Creekside Bar and Grill for dinner. We had rented a cottage in Battersea and nobody felt like cooking after our two-hour drive and the Creekside seemed like the perfect place to fuel up. The place looked like a bar and I wasn't sure that my teens and I should eat there but we were warmly welcomed by our server. My daughter had the kid's size pouting and my son & I had the fish and chips.... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Creekside Bar and Grill:

The place itself is ok. Had some decent music going and the wait staff was super friendly. We ordered a salad and wings. I was surprised it took nearly an hour to get the food. Not sure what was happening there. The wings were ok, pretty typical there. The salad left my wife less than impressed. Very soggy and wilted brown lettuce.

The cook should have presented this. The waitress did remove it from the bill without iss... read more.
