Food was very good and service excellent but the restaurant was very slow during our dinner. The ambience of the place is quite nice, despite being in a strip mall. We started with green papaya salad which was unique and delish. We also had calamari and it was unusual - sort of formed chunks but very good. The beef pad Thai was great as was my vegetable dish. Overall - a very good experience. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Siamese Thai Cuisine:

It used to be good. Vegetables were not properly cooked in one of the dishes we ordered. The curry was extremely watery and little taste. We had given this place another chance and we were disappointed again read more. At Siamese Thai Cuisine in Vaughan you can enjoy delicious vegetarian courses, that are free from any animal meat or fish, Furthermore, the visitors love the successful combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
