Spent weekend at Fairmont Chateau Montebello but decided to take a break from large (expensive) hotel breakfasts and went into town. Lot's of choice and they try very hard to make traditional breakfast unique and tasty. Excellent staff and service while enjoying the meal on the porch watching the world go by, The menu is prepared with care read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Aux Douceurs du Passant:

Yes, the food is very good. But the whole experience was marred by the owner/waitress' absolutely horrid attitude. From blatantly overcharging us to being generally nasty to our kids, who were actually really well behaved, the experience left a sour taste in my mouth. Which is a shame, because the food really is quite good. Still, you don't go out and drop $~100 to leave with a sour taste in your mouth. Definitely wi... read more. At Aux Douceurs du Passant in Montebello, there's a delicious brunch in the morning where you can indulge feast, and you can look forward to typical fine French cuisine. In this restaurant there is also an large variety of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, The original Canadian meals are a hit among the visitors of the restaurant.
