The welcome was a little weird. Indeed, when we arrived, no one came to welcome us; I had to go get the master of the latter explained to us that he thought we were with another group of 11 people and that we were going to join them. He apologized for contempt, and after the service was impeccable and we were able to dialogue with the owner who is very kind. The food is very good and the menu is very complete. on the... What User doesn't like about Restaurant Castello-Sweetsburg: Menu is rather classic. The food was fine but nothing more than what you normally get in an Italian restaurant. I would expect better for the price. Dinner for two with a bottle of ordinary wine was $220. Too much for the food that we had. Bread was nice and fresh though. read more.
