Charming and warm, the Tyne Valley Tea and company was truly an unexpected stop while driving through the area. Warm in decor from the ceiling to the door finishes, this little place by the road tries to give you PEI in a teacup....friendly service, tasty morsels in a wonderfully quaint setting. The homemade lemonade is perfect on a sunny day, paired with the warm lemon glazed loaf is not to be missed. If sweet and t... read more. What User doesn't like about Tyne Valley Tea and Company:

We liked the look of the place on their website, however it was not up to expectations. My friend ordered the quiche which was undercooked and very small, the salad consisted of greens and 1 cherry tomato! The soup was delicious but lukewarm. The desserts were underwhelming. The pavlova meringue was chewy. The bread pudding was dry and needed more sauce. The tea was too weak even after steeping. The coffee was fine. T... read more. The original Canadian menus from Tyne Valley Tea and Company, prepared with ingredients from the country, are popular, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the extensive variety of traditional dishes and indulge in the taste of England.
