What User likes about Pickles & Olives Bistro: We were too hot and tired to cook, so off to town we went. We checked out the menu online and there was plenty of food we enjoy to chose from. Our waiter was excellent- well spoken and well versed in every aspect of the restaurant. I had the Grimbergen stout based on his recommendation – an excellent choice. I had the spinach soup as an appetizer, which was very tasty. We both had the Veal Parmesan, and we both thorough... read more.

In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Pickles & Olives Bistro:

Very nice food and service. Tasty with nice presentation. Good food at decent prices and well worth the drive. Varied menu offers something for everyone. Two issues though. Very poor lighting and loud music. If you are not seated in the front area with windows, it is too dark to read the menu. Also, after a somewhat quiet late lunch (3:30 - 4:00) the staff decided to turn the music up VERY loud. If we were not finish... read more. This Bistro is small yet refined and captures attention not just with its ambiance, but also with its offer of typical, delectable dishes at typically reasonable prices, The traditional Canadian meals are well received by the customers of the local. Furthermore, there are easily digestible Mediterranean dishes available, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the delicious pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven.
